EMIGRATION TO THE RED RIVER AND TRINITY COLONY, TEXAS.

TRINITY COLONY, TEXAS.

THE parties to the contract made by the Government of Texas, under the special acts and authority of Congress, passed February 4th, 1841, and January 16th, 1842, with Peters and others, for the purpose of Colonizing a portion of the vacant and unappropriated lands of the Republic, having formed themselves into an association called "The Texan Emigration and Land Company," appointed the undersigned as trustees, and vested in them full power and authority to carry out and fulfil the objects and intentions of the parties thereto. We would, therefore, respectfully give notice to those who may wish to avail themselves of the liberal terms and conditions now offered by the Company, to settlers in their Colony, that we now have at the settlement, at the forks of the Trinity River, a permanent resident Agent, Mr. Charles S. Hensley, an intelligent and competent gentleman, who will at all times be prepared to receive and locate to their satisfaction, without delay, all who may go there to settle.

To all emigrants who shall go on to the grant and settle in the Colony, on or before the 1st day of July, 1846, the Company will give to each and every family 120 acres of land, and to each and every family 120 acres of land, and to each and every family, 220 acres of land, and to each and every family, 220 acres of land, and to each and every family, and $8 for each single man, and the actual expense of the deeds and the record thereof, and, if the parties are without money, a note will be taken, bearing interest.

By a family is to be understood a man and his wife, without without children, a widow or widower with two or more children under the age of seventeen years, or two men over the age of seventeen years, shall each be entitled to 160 acres of land in their own right, beside the 120 acres given to the family of which they are members.

Our Agent, Mr. Hensley, who was raised in the richest part of Kentucky, says of the country: "This is the most magnificent country my eyes ever beheld, for richne

One, Two, There and Foer, are now presented, thoroughly revised, and greatly enlarged, with many important improvements. They are now in a permanent stereotype form, NO FURTHER ALTERATIONS being intended.

Prof. McGuffey's enthusiastic devotion to the cause of Education, his fine taste and discriminating mind, and his practical experience as an instructer, render him peculiarly fitted for the department of authorship, to which he has given his attention. The suggestions of intelligent teachers who had used the former editions of the series, and the valuable aid afforded him in the revision by an experienced educator, have also furnished him with unusual facilities for advantageously revising and enlarging these works.

In this series, comprising as it does, a careful selection of instructive, entertaining and moral matter, progressively arranged, and graduated with reference to the capacity of the pupil, Prof. McGuffey has afforded to parents and teachers, a most thorough, complete, and efficient auxiliary in the education of youth. Its extensive use has been sufficient for the development and just appreciation of its many excellencies. The result is, that intelligent teachers pronounce it the most complete series now before the public.

The intrinsic merit of Prof. McGuffey's Eclectic Readers, hav-preciation of its many excellencies. The result is, that intelligent teachers pronounce it the most complete series now before the public.

The intrinsic merit of Prof. McGuffey's Ectectic Readers, having gained for them an unparalleled and rapidly increasing circulation, the publisher is enabled, not withstanding the heavy expenditure in their revision and enlargement, to manufacture them in the neatest and most durable manner, while they are now furnished at such low prices, that they are the CHEAPEST, as well as the best school reading books extant.

McGUFFEY'S RHETORICAL GUIDE; or Fifth Reader, of the Ectectic Series—450 pages, 12mo.; containing copious and minute rules, examples and exercises in articulation, inflection, emphasis, accent, quantity, rhetorical pause, modulation, expression, reading of poetry, rhetorical dialogue, gesture, and their collateral subjects, to which are added a great variety of elegant reading lessons, (about one half prose and half poetry.) selected from the most classic writers; furnishing entertaining and instructive specimens of various styles of composition. This work has been prepared with very great care, and with reference to making it a useful, practical, and standard book; and the publisher confidently hopes, that the Rhetorical Guide of Mr. McGuffey is well adapted to supply the wants of classes in rhetorical reading in our Academies, High Schools and Colleges.

IN SENATE.

Tuesday, January 6, 1846.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Hunter. The Clerk read the Journal of yesterday. The SPEAKER laid before the Senate a report from the First Auditor, containing a list of bonds received, cancelled and burnt. The SPEAKER announced the select committee to inquire whether the maps accompanying the report of the commissioners in reference to the boundary between Kentucky and Tennessee, should be engraved and printed, as follows, to wit: Messrs. Peyton, Helm and Slaughter.

A message from the H. R. announcing the passage of sundry bills in that House.

Mr. FOX presented the petition of Mrs. Martha Susan Kincaid, praying to be divorced from her husband, Richard Kincaid, jr., and that she be restored to her maiden name of Martha Susan Owsley: read and referred to the committee on Religion.

REPORTS FROM STANDING COMMITTEES. Mr. HARDIN, from the committee on the Judiciary, an act from the H. R. for the benefit of the town of Albany, with an amendment: amendment adopted and bill passed.

Also, an act from the H. R. for the benefit of W. T. Samuels: authorizes his appointment as a clerk, though not twenty one years old: passed. Also, a bill for the benefit of Jonathan T. More-

ORDERS OF THE DAY.

A bill to change the time of the meeting of the General Assembly to the first Monday in December in each year hereafter. Mr. EVANS moved to amend by striking out

December and inserting November. Mr. HARRIS would feel much obliged if the Senator from Allen, (Mr. Evans,) would be persuaded to concur in the bill without amendment. He was sure if that Senator's amendment received the sand tion of the Senate, it would ensure the defeat of the bill in the H. R. Many members of both Houses were members of the bar, and could not possibly reach here on the first Monday in November, without abandoning their practice to a great extent. He practiced in four courts, held in the month of November, one of the terms commencing on the third Monday; and if the time of the meeting of the general Assembly be fixed by law for the first Monday in November, he and others would be compelled to resign their seats in the Legislature. If the amendment prevail, he would vote against the bill. It seems to be the purpose of Senators to adopt the change. Many members had suffered much, travelling here this session, long journeys through ice and snow and bad roads.

Mr. EVANS would be gratified to accommodate the Senator from Floyd, (Mr. Harris) if he thought his proposition right and just. A few years ago, the meetings of the Legislature were on the first Monday of December, as proposed by this bill, but the Christmas holidays intervening, before the sessions were closed, recesses were taken, time lost, members went home, and the people complained. Against the present time of meeting it need only be urged that we have had hard travelling and most uncomfortable exposure in reaching here, the rivers eing frozen and the roads in desperate condition. He would go for the first Monday in December, if he could not get the first Monday in November. He knew the lawyers had Courts to attend to in November; but to leave their Courts is a privation they must undergo for the honor of being legislators. If to abandon a portion of practice at the bar were a conclusive consideration, he, too, would be compelled to resign, for some of the terms of his Courts would be interfered with by the adoption of his amendment. But he was willing to forego a portion of his practice and professional emoluments for the honor of his seat in the Senate, in assisting to promote the public interests. He deemed November the most eligible time of meeting, because the weather was pleasant, travelling comfortable and expeditious, fuel would be saved, the public business would be dispatched, and they could adjourn and return to their families, and enjoy the Christmas holidays at home, if they met the first Monday of that month. Meeting at that time, the members would be expeditous with public business, and nothing was so pleasing to the people as short sessions.

Mr. HEADY preferred the present time of meeting, the 31st of December, to either day proposed; but if it is to be changed, he preferred the first Monday of December. The present time of meeting was more convenient to the farmers, because before the day arrives their pork is killed and salted, hogs sold and corn gathered. The first of November is the farmer's busiest time. But to the present time. the ice, and snow, and cold weather have been stated as objections. This is an extraordinary sea- the whole State. IN SENATE.

Monday, January 5, 1845. Powers and Duties of the Committee on Executive Affairs and the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. HARRIS introduced a resolution, that all nominations of Judges, Judicial Officers and Com. theirs. monwealth's Attorneys, be referred to the committee them back to the Senate for reference to the committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. GRAY could see no good object to be gained by the adoption of the resolution. It is a proposition to refer nominations, in certain cases, to two standing committees, instead of one. As the rule of the Senate now stands, all such nominations go to the committee on the Judiciary. Mr. HARRIS explained. He wanted the rule to apply to all nominations. He had cited the case of the Judge sent to the 19th District merely as an illustration of the soundness of the principle involved in his resolution.

Mr. GRAY had no objection to the Senator from Floyd taking any course he might think proper on any nomination whatever; but he did not see the propriety of changing the rules in order to bring a subject within the province of a committee on which a Senator, desirous of conducting an inquiry, might happen to be placed.

"THE OREGON QUESTION IMPARTIALLY VIEWED: WAR, AND ITS CONSEQUENCES."—Under this title the Hon. John M. The debate in the U.S. Senate on the resolutions offered by Messrs. Hannegan and Calhoun, in relation to the Oregon question, has added greatly to the confidence of intelligent observers of events, each brow. that there will be no war. Indeed, we think the debate confirms the hope that the question will be peacefully adjusted by negotiation. Adopting the spirit of Mr. Archer, we disdain to say we mean an began such a battle! They would lose every certain and practical good, in grasping after imaginary advantages. And it is precisely this class of men, that "O, neathing at a', maun; we just want to gie are making such loud and disgusting splutterings them a gude thrashin'—that's a'." about patriotism and chivalry and all that sort of cheap profession--men at the best who have no

In turning over the pages of an old magazine we have fallen upon the best translation which we have yet seen of the celebrated Inscription to Faustus. The plan of this wonderful drama was sketched out while Goethe was a student, but the first part was not published until he had passed the meridian of life. The penning of this Inscription recalls to the poet's mind the companions and friends of his youth, JANUARY 7, 1846, with whose voices and presence the conception of the drama is associated; visions of early days float around him at the moment, but he looks out beyond them, from the threshold of old age, into strange countenances and an altered world-the early friends Transhould the members of the Legislature discover any inac-curacies in our reports of proceedings, which require correction, they are respectfully requested to bring them to the notice of the away. Ye throng before my view, divinely clear, Like sun-beams conquering a cloudy sky! Beneath your lightning-glance my spirit burns, Magic is breathing-youth and joy returns!

What forms rise beautiful of happy years? What lovely shadows float before me fast ? Like an old song still tingling in the ears, I hear the voice of loves and friendships past ;-Renewed each sorrow and each joy appears That marked life's changing labyrinthine waste The friends return, who past in youth away, Cheated, alas! of half life's little day.

But ah! they cannot hear my closing song, Those hearts, for whom my earliest lays were tried; Departed is, alas! the friendly throng, And dumb the echoing spirits that replied; If some still live this stranger world among. Fortune hath scattered them at distance wide, To men unknown my griefs must I impart, Whose very praise is sorrow to the heart !

Again it comes! a long unwonted feeling, A wish for that calm solemn phantom-land: My song is swelling now, now lowly stealing, Like Æol's harp, by varying breezes fanned; Tears follow tears, my weaknesses revealing, And silent shudders show a heart unmann - Dull forms of daily life before me flee, The Past-the Past alone, seems true to me !

A CUBA MEETING IN ILLINOIS .- We copy the following from the St. Louis Republican of the 13th

There have been two meetings in Springfield, Ill., the object of which seems to have been the annexation of Cuba to the United States, either peaceably, or by war if necessary to its attainment. It was a Locofoco affair, mainly, and afforded much amusement. Governor Ford presided at the meeting, and four vice presidents and as many secretaries were appointed. A committee formerly appointed, reported an address and resolutions-after which, Governor John Reynolds, who claims this bantling as his own, made a decided war speech-when this was over, Mr. Johnson, of Galena, offered a resolution, which threw the Cuba men into some confusion, "that it was impolitic to purchase Cuba, if we thereby entailed a debt on the United States, as the lar reresult would be to increase the taxes, and be a reason for perpetuating the present tariff policy. Mr. McConnell, the hard money bank-paper-shaving man, took the floor, and advocated the necessity and importance of the purchase of Cuba, insisting if we did not get it, our old enemy, England, would. Baker, of Alton, followed, in a sort of quizzing speech, in which he was understood to be in favor, not only of Cuba, but all of the Western Islands, not by negotiation or purchase, but by arms.

Islands, not by negotiation or purchase, but by arms.

Gov. Moore followed, and said that the only difference between Gov. Reynolds and his friend Baker was—one was in favor of purchasing first, and then going to war; and the other in favor of going to war, and then purchasing. A motion was now made by — to lay on, or under the table, the resolution of Mr. Johnson, which prevailed, not one single individual voting in favor of this most Democratic resolution.

Saturday evening the meeting was opened, Gov. Ford in the chair. Mr. Urquhart, being called for, introduced a resolution, "That it was impolitic, in view of our present relations with Great Britain on the Oregon question, to enter into any negotiations in relation to the purchase of Cuba.'

Mr. McConnell moved to amend Mr. Urquhart's resolution by making it read. "that it was expedient," which was carried. Judge Ralston then offered a resolution that was in in effect, "if we did not purchase Cuba, we would not allow any other power to purchase it," which was carried.

Mr. Johnson offered a resolution, "that if the President of the United States should negotiate a purchase of Cuba, that this meeting solemnly advise the State of Illinois to pledge her faith and unsullied honor to promptly pay her proportion of the purchase money;" which was laid on the table by a decided vote.

WOMEN AT FORTY AND FIFTY .-- A late number of the New Monthly Magazine holds the following humorous discourse in relation to the way the ladies of middle age get over their years. Women of forty hold up tolerably well, according to this writer-it is when they arrive at fifty that the "trial of trials" comes upon them. Hear the editor talk, or rather read what he writes:

"The man who is ashamed of his poverty would be proud of his riches, but though many a hobblede-boy blushes at looking so young, he makes no boast of his years when he comes to be a greybeard. BOSWELL'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY OF LATEST IMPROVEMENTS, by which, not only the pery, but the face and eyes are given perfect in all their b of color and expression. Together with his late and valuable covery of coloring the back ground, which is universally adn and so indispensable in beautifying and finishing a miniature trait is record testes.

Boswell has opened his Gallery at the corner of Main and Am streets, over the Drug store of W. L. Crutcher, near the Weisiger House, where he is prepared to receive ladies and gentlemen to take their likenesses in any kind of weather by affording him from ten to sixty seconds sitting. None need now hesitate in consequence of the heretofore objection to Daguerreotypes, viz. dimness of the eyes and imperfection of colors. Mr. B., by his late improvements, pledges himself to give the eyes and hair perfect with all their brightness and colors. Perfect likenesses are warranted and satisfaction given before any charge is made. Mr. Bowell is prepared to give instructions in his late improvements, which are unequalled, and warrants all of his miniature nortraits to remain

A CARD FOR 1846.

COUNTRY MERCHANTS who are in the habit of purchasing their Queensware and China in the Eastern Cities, would do well to bear in mind that they have now a chance of saving from $12 to $15 per crate, by making their purchases of the subscribers in Louisville. We are the first in the Western country to offer these Goods at eastern prices, without carriage, thereby making a saving of all freights and charges to Western merchants, being about $12 to $15 per crate, as also the loss of time in getting their goods. We have taken particular care to find out the lowest eastern prices, and will here give a sample, viz: 3 quart White Granite, or any colour Hexagon Pitchers, $4 50 per dozen; Twifters, or 9 inch plates, White Granite or any colour, 75 cents per dozen; Painted Teas 10 cents per set, and 50 sets to $100, or one set to every $2 of bill. Every article in the line proportionably low. Our stock will be very full and complete in February.
